The Threshold of Life

Many men allow themselves to attain middle age before thinking of Life Assurance. The subject should make its strongest appeal to a man standing upon the threshold of his career.

Life Assurance is always economical. If taken up at an early age it is doubly so. Endowment Assurance taken up now, matures at the moment when either your business or your family will feel the benefit of it most.

Avoid the regrets that many men feel in later life.

Savings Command Respect

Take yourself, for instance. You know that you respect those men who have Bank Accounts and are saving to buy a home or start in business for themselves. A Savings Account commands the respect of people worth while; is an asset in business; and a good recommendation for any man. You can start a Savings Account with as little as $1. and add to it as you wish, in sums of $1. upwards.

VARSIITY WON SATURDAY'S RUGBY GAME

Despite Wonderful Playing
by McGill Score Goes Against Them.

TEAMS NOW TIED.

Over 15,000 View the Great Football Classic.

Rising to the greatest heights of pluck and endurance in the face of the most discouraging and adverse circumstances McGill went down to defeat on Saturday at Varsity stadium by the score of 16 to 2. Rarely has a team shown such fighting spirit as that displayed by the Red and White representatives as time after time the fates played their grim jests and turned their play to the advantage of their opponents. Before a crowd that was estimated as close to 18,000 McGill outplayed Varsity on the defense tore holes through their line for innumerable gains on the offense yet suffered one of the worst defeats, from the standpoint of scoring, in years. Lady Luck had her eyes glued on Varsity throughout the hour's play and never once turned even a pitying glance in the direction of the struggling McGill warriors but Toronto would have won in any case, by a smaller score. It was a revelation to the sporting element of Toronto to see the way the Red and White line kept sweeping forward even in the face of such a succession of rebuffs, and one and all were amazed that a team should keep on trying to win when there was not time to do so and when half the team was completely knocked out and the remainder playing on their nerve alone. For a supporter of McGill it was a most disheartening game to watch because time after time the red machine would march three quarters of the way down the field and would be on the point of scoring only to be penalized for interference or to see the ball hit the cross-bar, or fall inches short on beautiful efforts by Carroll, who surpassed himself in a kicking duel with two men who are bound to take their places in the football hall of fame as the most perfect kicking combination that has ever represented Varsity in the Intercollegiate series.

The story of McGill's defeat, outside of the string of misfortunes which followed them during the game, might be told in the mere naming of Somerville and Snyder, the Varsity team. Somerville a recent acquisition from a prep school scored three drop kicks with his educated toe and scored two more goals by forcing the McGill backs to range to his wings, he also played a marvellous game on the defensive and caught every twister of Carroll's without the semblance of an error. He showed himself a player of rare promise and in the years to come he should make football history by his marvellously accurate drop kicking. His team mate Snyder, one of the greatest backs in the game today, for the second time in a year defeated McGill singlehanded. True he did not actually score the points but his phenomenal kicking and sensational running put Varsity in the position to score every time Somerville boot put another spike in McGill's coffin. ## DELTA SIGMA WILL MEET WEDNESDAY

First Meeting of Society to be Addressed by Mrs.
McNaughton.

The first meeting of the Delta Sigma Society will be held on Wednesday. A short business meeting will first be held, at which important matters are to be discussed. Mrs. McNaughton will then give a short address, which promises to be very interesting and in conclusion tea will be served. For the benefit of the Freshmen let it be mentioned that the Delta Sigma Society is the Literary & debating Society of the college and two points for the banner are awarded on its work. The Society is therefore one of the most important in the college and its meetings are always very interesting. So all out on Wednesday, Freshmen, Sophomores, juniors, Seniors.

CLUB FORMED TO STUDY WIRELESS

Executive Committee Was Elected Wednesday.

A meeting of those interested in Wireless Telegraphy and Telephony was held on Wednesday last, at which it was decided to organize a radio club. Drs. Eve and Gray were kind enough to be present and to set the objects of discussion before the meeting, at the same time making valuable suggestions as to the steps necessary to make the association a successful one.

An executive of three and a committee of five were then elected. After a discussion of general points the meeting adjourned, leaving the committee to arrange a programme for the next meeting.

All "hams" are invited to be present on Nov. 3rd, to consider the report of the committee and to hear a short talk introducing the study of wireless.

The following are the officers elected:—

- Hon. President.—Dr. King.
President.—S. M. Finlayson.
Vice-President.—H. P. Wilder.
Sec.—Treasurer.—P. E. Demers.
Committee.—F. A. Bailey, C. M. Bennett, C. F. Phipps, J. A. Taylor, H. W. Peters.

SUNDAY SING WAS WELL ATTENDED

Good Orchestra Accompanied to Well Known Tunes.

Last night the Sunday Sing enthusiasts comfortably filled the reading room of the Hall, and the usual number of bashful males lined the walls in the more secluded corners.

The songs picked were nearly all well known, and there was a great deal of rivalry among several groups as to what would be the next number.

Enthusiasm seems to be rising at the Sings, and better than last year. Both R.V.C. and the men are well represented, and in almost equal numbers.

After the vocal entertainment, coffee and cakes appeared; then disappeared.

A few more numbers and the evening closed with "Hail Alma Mater," and the National Anthem.

THE FRESHMEN'S ISSUE.

To-day is the last day for handing in articles for the Freshman's issue. Now is the time for the lyric bards and suppressed O. Henriets to come forth into the light of the dawn. The "Daily" only requests that all matter be handed in not later than this evening.

McGILL WON RUGGER GAME AT STADIUM

Fair Crowd Saw Team to Victory.

SCORE 12—3.

Team Showed Much Better
Form Than Last Week.

Those who witnessed the Rugby contest between McGill and 'Varsity last Saturday felt somewhat compensated for the ill luck of the College in the other momentous events of that day. October the 29th may have been an unfortunate day for McGill, but, thanks to our senior Rugby squad, 'Varsity was prevented from carrying off all the athletic honours and McGill once again demonstrated her superiority "on her nature heath." The weather was ideal for the game; the ground was in good condition and the wind was nothing to speak of. A fair representation of McGill supporters witnessed the battle and cheered the team on to victory.

It was a good clean match throughout and no one was seriously injured though Robinson of Toronto was knocked unconscious for a short time, due to missing a tackle. The score, 12-3, adequately showed the superiority of the McGill team over the one that made the trip to Toronto a week ago, and much credit is due to Prof. Matthews for the excellent way in which he coached the men last week. Both teams are very grateful to the referee, Ross, whose decisions were accepted without question.

'Varsity took the finest kick-off. The McGill forwards dribbled the ball up the field and after some scrimming McGill was given a free kick, which took the ball well into 'Varsity territory. A five yards scrim was called and McDougall, receiving the ball, made a good run and scored McGill first try. Manson failed to connect. Score, 3-0. Varsity kicked off from centre field and by a series of rushes got the ball to the Red and White five yard line. Robinson received the ball from a loose scrim and scored for 'Varsity. McEwen failed to convert. Score 3-3. McGill kicked off from centre field and after an exchange of kicks lost 15 yards for off-side. The ball was kicked outside at every opportunity and the play gradually moved towards the 'Varsity line. McLean made a good run until brought down.

'Varsity awarded fine kick. Play again moved towards 'Varsity line and Manson went over for the second touch. McDougall failed to convert. Score 6-3. After the centre kick 'Varsity forced the play and bucked through to McGill's five-yard line. Play hung here for several minutes and Bradshaw saved twice for McGill. 'Varsity was then forced back into their own territory and Bradshaw went over for a try. Half-time: McGill —9, 'Varsity —3.

In the second period McGill took the kick. Play moved from one touch line to the other, ending in a number of centre field scrims. McLean received the ball and made a pretty run and by a series of passes the ball was brought White forced the play on Toronto's goal. Caple and Ross did brilliant work

SHOOTING MEET HELD SATURDAY

It is Hoped That There Will Be Intercollegiate Shoot.

The first shoot in the series of four in the competition for the Salvar offered by the Government to each registered rifle club, was held Saturday afternoon. This competition is based on the highest aggregate of the four separate meets, each including ranges of 200, 500 and 600 yards and thus selects the best shot in a club, eliminating most of the chance element.

That of last Saturday was a marked success. The weather conditions were perfect for range work though dusk was coming on rapidly before all had finished at 600 yards, but the scores show a keen rivalry. This augurs well for the intercollegiate shoot which it is hoped will be staged in the early part of November.

The club still invites any men to come out but they should notify the executive in advance in order to have a sufficient number of markers engaged.

The following are the men who totalled over 70.

BROWSING.

At least one of the benefits derived from the five million dollar financial campaign last year is the building of the extension to the Redpath Library. For many years past this admirable institution was seriously handicapped for want of the requisite space; though it is far better, of course, that a library should be thus crippled than that it should be merely a vast, ornate and highly-staffed receptacle of space like a certain institution dear to the hearts of our City Fathers.

But now the long-awaited addition is in the building, and the advent of the mason and the carpenter has put an end to browsing.

A goodly majority of the Graduates, who in their student days were accustomed to make use of the Library, affirm that they derived more real educational benefit from being permitted to graze in the stacks than from all the lecture courses ever attended. One should not say so, of course, but most lectures are either rather tediously erudite or else it is too early in the morning, too close to lunch-time or too late in the afternoon to appreciate them properly. Prescribed "readings" are irksome inasmuch as they generally lack the satisfaction inherent in finality. There is nothing to be compared to the privilege of being permitted to browse among two hundred thousand odd volumes in the stack.

Apparently the Library Committee have deemed it inadvisable to allow any students whatsoever to make use of the stock until the necessary changes incident on the new addition have been completed. This is unexceptionable, but what if they should take advantage of the break in precedent to prohibit finally this inestimable advantage. For most other university libraries do not allow students into the stack.

At present post-graduate students, Honour students in the Faculty of Arts, and all those specializing in the other Faculties of this University, are unavoidably to withgo a very real, and in the case of some, a most indispensable benefit. This unfortunate narrowing of their educational horizon may last a whole session, but we would urge most strongly that the old privileges be restored as soon as possible. It has been a distinct gain rather than a loss to McGill that her Library should have hitherto been an exception to the general rule, for it is quite incontestable but that her students have profited thereby. Broad and unfettered reading, however careless and whimsical, is the most effective antidote to the mental constipation, which is the only result of the detestable system of spoon-feeding.

A GAME FIGHT.

It was by no means a pleasant experience for those who sat in the stands at the Stadium last Saturday afternoon listening to the results of the momentous McGill-Varsity game as they came trickling in relentlessly over the Toronto wire.

They had none of the fever of the fight to inspire them, and to make them feel that the struggle itself was as nothing, compared to the heroic worth of the struggle of man against man and team against team. For a magnificent battle it was, between two of the most efficient and highly-trained rugby machines of this country, both of them determined to remove all doubt from the indecisive result of their encounter in this city a fortnight before. And the better team won.

Saturday's game was the best possible object lesson of the true value of competitive sport, which is the perfect development of every atom of tenacity and skill. A natural feeling of disappointment has given rise to a certain amount of recrimination on this occasion, recrimination directed partly against the officials and partly against the Varsity twelve. McGill does not need to seek excuses in this fashion.

The victory for the Blue and White on Saturday only signifies the injection of an added element of interest into the Intercollegiate series, but the end is not yet. A spirit of quite justifiable confidence would urge that in about three weeks' time it will be necessary for the officials of the Canadian Intercollegiate Rugby Union to fix the site of a third and last encounter between the principals the recent engagement. With the invaluable experience that ways goes with defeat and another demonstration of the unconquerable gameness of those who are charged to carry the colors Old McGill, it is not too much to hope that a certain very valuable piece of plate will repose in its case in the Union during the coming winter.

MCGILL STUDENT WON PRIZE FOR MEMORIAL

P. E. Wilson, Arch. '25, has won a prize of $1,000 for a design of a war memorial for erection on the battlefields of France and Belgium. Out of 160 contestants from all over Canada, 32 were chosen in the first eliminations. Of these 7 were asked to send models of their designs, and two were selected for use as memorials. Three of the rest were given prizes of $1,000 each, Wilson winning one of these.

To the Editor,
McGill Daily:

Dear Sir,—The inexplicable defeat of our heroic team at Toronto on Saturday impels me to submit this to the Daily for publication.
I can well imagine under what conditions and with what hopes they can their journey. They had dealt the vaunted squad from Queen's a tremendous blow. They had undergone a most rigorous training. In fact, it seemed as though the way was paved for an even more telling victory.

My knowledge of rugby is of a very superficial sort, not that I am proud of my ignorance, far from it. I only want to make it perfectly clear that I am not trying to teach anybody the game. That is the business of our splendid coach, and he knows his business. It seemed, I repeat, as though they had done everything. But there was one thing they had not done!

As I lay in my bed of sickness on the memorable day that our men defeated Queen's, reflecting what a slim chance we had of winning, I was near enough to the stadium to hear the shouts of the crowd without being able to see whether they meant defeat or victory. Under this conditions my excitement was so great that I had to do something, something that would help our team to win. Do you know what I did, impotent as I was? I prayed. Yes, prayed for a clean victory and a great one.

Everyone who reads this knows whether that petition was answered or not.

There are two kinds of men in the world, believers in God and atheists, commonly called "bible" and "bible". I hope all my readers belong to the former category. I myself do. Any one who has been very near to death has also been very near to God. Those of you who are returned men will understand what I mean.

Do you know whom I blame for our defeat on Saturday? Myself! Why myself? No one had told me there were to be any matches. Granted! But I should have known. I should have found out somehow. I shall never forgive myself for sleeping throughout the entire afternoon. Asleep at my post, you see, with the receiver at my ear, and the transmitter in my hand. I ought to be court-martialed for criminal carelessness.

Students of McGill! Before the game against Syracuse takes place I shall either have passed from the hands of the surgeon with a new lease of life, or into the Great Physician's hands. That is as God wills. Either way, I shall be with you in spirit. Don't let me fall upon deaf ears! Don't let me be as a voice crying in the wilderness! Too often prayer is only a last resort, but even that does not diminish its power. Electricity? Radium? They are as nothing compared to it.

I make a request, knowing it may be the last thing I ask of my university. I want every student of Old McGill to go down on his knees, even if they are a bit stiff, at least once before the next game, and pray that God may strengthen and sustain the gallant men who will defend our colors. If you feel you can't pray don't let that prevent you from kneeling anyway. It will do you no harm and it may do considerable good. Just as each one of us is both better and worse than any other knows, so God is much nearer to us than we imagine.

If we lose that game, after praying about it, we must be prepared to take the blame ourselves, realizing that our supplications were not acceptable in the sight of God. But bear this in mind. The great psalmist says, "A broken and a contrite heart, O God, Thou wilt not despise!" And Christ Himself has told us, "Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you!"

Do we dare to disbelieve these words?

In conclusion, I have one more small request to make. I want every man who goes forth to do battle for his university to go, not with an oath but with a prayer upon his lips. A praying team is an invincible one. And then—"Play up, play up, and play the game!"

And when we have won, give God the glory.
God bless McGill! May the name of our Alma Mater ever top the list as the world's best example of the true sporting spirit, whether in victory or defeat! May there never be a blot upon her scutcheon! God bless you all!

Yours faithfully,

AEGROTO.

LATEST WORD ON SYRACUSE FOOTBALLERS

Players on Orange Team Discussed

STRONG LINE-UP.

Much Interest Being Shown at Syracuse Itself.

(Special to McGill Daily)

Syracuse, Oct. 29th, 1921.—When the football practice opened this year at Syracuse University most everyone thought well of the material at the disposal of Head Coach "Chick" Meehan but there were many who believed that the places vacated by the departing stars of the 1920 team would not be satisfactorily filled this season. Naturally the graduation of Joe Alexander, the All-American lineman left a hole in the center of the line which seemed larger to the Orange followers than the entrance to Arebhold Stadium. Truly a man of Alexander's caliber is always missed and especially when that man was the greatest defensive player of all time, so considered by most critics.

But those that were disturbed had not figured on that quiet little fellow, Frank Culver, who hails from Scott High School, Toledo, O., and who was Alexander's understudy at center last year. Thus they had not seen him in action except a little as defensive end since his freshman days but there was a pleasant surprise in store for the football fans. This 150 pound lad reported to Coach Meehan the first day of practice and since then has been playing offensive center and defensive end in a manner satisfactory to all. In fact his playing to date has been sensational and for football brains and aggressiveness he is one of the best men on the entire squad. Barring injuries he seems to have his job clinched for the balance of the season.

The other important vacancies were at the ends—to fill the places left vacant by Harry Robertson. Captain of the 1920 team and who is now coach of the freshman team, and "Mickey" Fallon, who is still in college and eligible—being an honor student—but he was injured in last year's Holy Cross game and never has sufficiently recovered to do the moleskins again. It was known that in Baysinger and MacRae the Orange had two of the best freshman ends ever playing on the same yearline team but there were many who doubted if they would be sufficiently experienced to step in and fill the gaps. Both have been given the regular assignments to date, although Rosengrant and Olson two other youngsters on the varsity squad have been giving them a merry battle for their positions. If a strained back had not seriously handicapped the work of Rosengrant, there are many who believe he would have gained one of the regular jobs. Of course none of these men are finished varsity players at this stage of the game but Coach Meehan and his assistants are encouraged with their progress and are hopeful that they will prove as satisfactory in the big battles to come as they have in the easier early season games.

There was one other vacancy on the line caused by the graduation of "Tot" Hoople, who is back this fall assisting with the line coaching. To fill this place, Meehan had an abundance of men but all except Heers were of unknown varsity caliber. Heers was a valuable utility lineman, filling in at guard, tackle or center as the occasion required, but he was not considered quite capable of filling the place in question. "Big Jim" Murray, Lew Carr's pitching ace, is an anxious and hard working lineman but needs another season's experience. Van Blarcom of last year's undefeated freshman team seemed a likely choice and has been showing up fairly well to date. He received an injury to his jaw just as he was displaying his best form which set him back in his battle for a regular job. Jappe, the big blonde youth from Brooklyn, a member of the frosh team in 1919 and who was not in college last year has had the call so far and while he has plenty to learn before he is a finished lineman his work has been creditable. Just what he will do in the big games of the season is a problem.

Waldorf, a star carsman of Ten Eyck's freshman crew last spring is another lineman who has developed from a raw green player into promising material. Although he probably cannot win a position this fall, there are many who prophesy a regular berth for him next year. To add to the worries of the coaches of this lack of experience among the line candidates, there has been the poor play of the veterans to date. "Tiny" Clash was late in reporting and just as he was getting started towards the form displayed at the end of last season, an injury to his side put him on the sidelines. Thompson has been slow in getting started this fall, although his work this last week has been nearer his old time form. Captain Bert Gulick has been the only one to display his previous ability and he has confined this largely to the games, for in practice he has often looked to be far below last season's form. On Saturday, October 15th, however, he came through with a splendid game and this added to his good work in the three earlier games stamps him as an All-American possibility this year.

In the backfield Coach Meehan and his assistants have had very little to

DINNER FOR THE OUT OF TOWN MEN

Thanksgiving Feast Will be Given by Women's Auxiliary of the S.C.A.

For many years the out-of-town students of the University have been treated to a real turkey dinner on Thanksgiving Day, by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Student Christian Association. Evidence is already at hand that they will not be forgotten this year. Last year two hundred men whose homes are outside Montreal were present at the dinner. There will be room for nearly that number next Monday.

A change in the hour is to be noted. Formerly the dinner has been given in the evening. This year it will be served at 1 o'clock. The reason for this is the presence in the city on that day of Dr. Zivemer, whose name is well known as an authority on the Near East. Dr. Zivemer will be able to attend the dinner at Strathcona Hall at noon. Murray Brooks will also be present to assist in the programme.

All who desire to attend should register their names at once at Strathcona Hall. Lists will be posted there for the purpose. Attendance is limited to out-of-town students, and of these men of all years are welcome.

PEPYS AT MCGILL

Sunday, Oct. 30. (Lord's Day).—

Home again by public night-coach from Toronto, where, sad to say, the victory lay not with our players at Foote-ball, though they fought as stoutly and in as fine a phrezy as any men I ever saw. Found Toronto to be a most strange and savage place, and the idle gossip I had heard to be true; to wit, that there is indeed no lawul-drinking of strong spirits of any sort. Indeed, more: The Lord Mayor and Aldermen do station certain men at so many paces stoutly and in as fine a phrezy as any men I ever saw. Found Toronto chase their drink, claiming it to be better than any honest made wine or ale, but to me it seemed more like so much Thames water taken at the place where the King's ships did use to lie at anchor and mixed with a deal of yellow ochre. Especially did I behold these vendors, and at only a half-furlong the one from the other, on Temperance street, which is one of their highways. Cannot but grieve at having lost at a silly wager my new-gotten wager. The morning when I came to my house, I went straightway to bed, sleeping like a little suckling child, being overwhelmed quite with my shouting and crying at the game; also because of the prodigious snoring of him who slept with me on the same couch on our journey, which quite robbed me of sleep, and so missed another going to church on the Lord's Day.

R.V.C. HOLDS SUCCESSFUL SPORTS DAY

Many People Witness Thrilling Events.

AMUSING RACES.

The Dansant Follows the Athletic Programme.

Many students, graduates, and friends witnessed with interest the R. V. C., Sports last Saturday afternoon. The weather, which had been so fine for the few days preceding proved ideal for the occasion; and everyone was thus enabled to watch the sports without any discomfort.

It was a pretty sight to see the girls, clad in their navy tunics and scarlet sweaters, come running out singing the good old song, Come Fill Your Glasses, which was followed by the R. V. C. and McGill yells.

Several races proved very amusing. The visitors' Race was keenly contested, so much so, that all the competitors were disqualified. Bob Hall was, however, considered the winner. The Faculty Race was extended to include all the officials. In this race the grown-ups pushed red balloons through the air in a most undignified manner. In the Blindfold Race some girls went running into the crowd while others were knocked down and trodden upon.

Several records were broken this year. In the Running Broad Jump, Miss E. Snyder succeeded in jumping 13 ft. 11 in.; the record which Miss Snyder made last year was 13 ft. 10½ in. In the Running High Jump the record made last year by Miss M. Fry and Miss J. Henderson was 4 ft. 1 in. This year Miss J. Henderson and Miss D. Russell jumped 4 ft. 3 in., and Miss M. Fry 4 ft. 2 in.

Altogether the Fourth Year made the best showing piling up 41 points. The Third Year made 33 points, the Second 19, and the First 15.

Miss E. Snyder, who won 13 points was the winner of a silver cup, which was presented by Miss Richenstein, the Honorary President. Miss T. Rough made the second best score, having 11 points. Miss Snyder and Miss Rough are both to be congratulated on their very splendid work.

After the events the girls gave three cheers for Miss Snyder, Miss Lichenstein, Miss Cartwright, and Miss Henderson. After this Hail Alma Mater was sung and the McGill yell given.

A The Dansant was then held in the R. V. C., refreshments being served in the Common Room, and dancing going on in the Convocation Hall, where good music was supplied. Here many spent a very enjoyable hour, before they went home.

SYRACUSE GOES DOWN TO DEFEAT

Washington and Jefferson Trim McGill's Next Opponents.

Chester Weiderquist, of Moline, Ill., right tackle for W. and J., grabbed a Syracuse forward pass out of the air in the last period to-day and ran fifteen yards for a touchdown and gave his team a 17 to 10 victory over the Orange. Syracuse, fighting a desperate, uphill battle, smashed over the line for a touchdown in the last period to put herself in a tie, after negotiating fifty-six yards in line smashes down the field. Three minutes later came the forward pass.

W. and J. went into the lead in the second period when, after tearing through the Syracuse line for several first downs, Captain Stein booted a goal from placement. Syracuse evened the score early in the third session when Herbert tossed a forward pass to McRae for fifteen yards, and after two bucks at the line Herbert kicked a field goal from the 30-yard line.

Syracuse kicked off to West, who, taking the ball in the shadow of the goal posts, ran through the entire Syracuse team ninety-five yards for a touchdown. Starting the fourth, Syracuse opened up a smashing attack that for a time swept W. and J. off their feet. Using Anderson almost exclusively, quarterback Herbert smashed and ripped at the W. and J. line, advancing the ball fifty-six yards in straight plays and finally sending Frugone over for the touchdown, which again put the Orange on an even footing.

W. J. took the ball on the kick-off, but was forced to punt. Syracuse opened up another smashing attack, which was just getting under way when Moses shot a forward pass at McRae. Weiderquist broke through the Orange line, blocked the throw, grabbed the ball and ran across the line. Stein kicked the goal.

Syracuse tried desperately in the last few minutes for a touchdown, but the W. and J. line held.

INTER CLASS BOXING MEET TO BE HELD

New Method for Unearthing Inter-Collegiate Fighters

EARLY START.

Faculty Representatives Chosen.

As previously announced in this paper, the B. W. and F. Executive purpose arranging inter-class and inter-faculty boxing competitions. The object of these competitions is to increase the interest in the manly art and indirectly to unearth material for the Intercollegiate Assult-at-Arms. The standard of intercollegiate boxing is not very high, and with the coaching that McGill boxers enjoy, any normal man who takes his training seriously and is at all apt in learning has a very good chance to represent his faculty and college in his weight. This is especially true of the heavier weights, as there is always a shortage of men for the heavyweight divisions.

In the inter-class and inter-faculty eliminations, inter-collegiate champions will not be permitted to enter. Everyone will, therefore, be on an equal footing, at the beginning of the season. The man who gets into training at once and attend classes regularly is the one who will have the advantage.

To assist the B. W. and F. Executive in the inter-class and faculty contests, representatives to the various faculties have been appointed. The duty of these men is to "boost" the game in their respective faculties, and to make certain that all the various weights are contested by entries from each year, and that his faculty is represented by a full team of the best men available. The faculty bouts will be fought at Snookers to be held during the present session.

The following are the appointments:

Law—Wilkes.
Science—McMeans.
Medicine—"Shorty" Morris.
Dentistry—"Lew" Kent.
Arts—Cope.
Commerce—Shackall.

These men are requested to be present at the turn out on Tuesday at 2 p.m., for the purpose of discussing future plans and to look over the men who are already in training.

A.—Elevate your left eyebrow and inquire sweetly, "What are you, a cripple?"

VARISITY WON SATURDAY'S BIG RUGBY GAME.

(Continued from page 1.) but these who actually saw the game would believe that it was humanly possible to kick such a distance when running at full speed and hampered by tacklers on all sides. It is not any exaggeration to say that at times his return into 'Varsity territory.

McNiven scored for 'Varsity and after a 25 yard dropout play again took place at centre field. 'Varsity was given a free kick but gained no ground. McLean got the ball and passed to Marpole, who went over for McGill's fourth try. Not converted. Score 12-3. Red and kicks were travelling distances of seventy yards, and one time at a critical point in the game he kicked from behind his own line and the McGill backs recovered the ball on their ten yard line. Varsity can thank Snyder for having given them this chance at the penant.

Lozier suffered heavily from one of Snyder's rushes, when he received a terrific blow in the face from the Toronto half-back and was unable to properly regain his senses for the remainder of the game.

Jack Maynard is to be congratulated on the team he has turned out and Toronto played a game that will take its place among the greatest of the long series of games between the ancient rivals. The crowd, the largest in the history of Canadian sport, was appreciative of every good effort by McGill and time after time a cheer rolled across the field informing the world in general that there was nothing the matter with the particular player who had just made a sterling play or who had to retire on account of injuries.

The analysis of McGill's weakness shows that the outside wings are not of senior calibre and that the McGill tackling is not equal to that of Varsity.

The back division is exceptionally good and the secondary defense is probably the best part of the team. Carroll as a kicker is equal to any of his rivals and with the proper protection he should get even greater distance than on Saturday. Shaughnessy must, if he is to be successful, discover two wings of ability and must try and change the style of tackling now in use. Had the McGill wings been slower in going after a man they would have been more successful and they would not have subjected themselves to such injuries.

The outstanding quality of the team is its gameness and its ability to take punishment and come back for more. It won great respect from the people of Toronto and each man can be justly proud of the game he played.

Statistics compiled during the game showed that McGill got their yards 16 times to Varsity's 3, that McGill were penalized six times for interference on line of scrimmage while Varsity escaped punishment, that Varsity lost ground twice for not giving yards, whereas McGill gave the opposing backs plenty of opportunity to make a fair catch; that McGill lost the ball on third downs four times, once for the wings being offside, and Varsity were forced to hand over the pigskin once for not making yards; that McGill backs fumbled once giving the opposing team a chance to score a field goal while the Varsity backs played errorless ball and that on the exchange of punts Varsity gained from ten to thirty yards each time due to the failure of the McGill wings to get down under the ball and also to the fact that Snyder was playing the game of his life.

A point was raised by a peculiar play near the end of the game that was not disputed by McGill. Somerville had kicked and the ball did not travel more than thirty yards; it was bouncing on the ground and Philpotts, surrounded by Varsity players was waiting for an opportunity to pick it up and get away. Somerville who had kicked the ball raced down the field and instead of picking up the ball he charged into Philpotts, knocking him out while one of his team mates fell on the ball. Now instead of bringing the ball back to the place from where it had been kicked and giving it to McGill for interference on the part of Somerville the referee failed to see the play and gave it to Varsity on the McGill one yard line, and Philpotts was carried off the field unconscious.

The team came out of the game considerably the worse for wear but no one was seriously injured except Philpotts whose arm was twisted and who may not be able to play for some time. As a result of the defeat by Varsity the next important game is not the Syracuse game, but the game in Kingston against Queens, who will be a hard team to beat on their home grounds and who will try and eliminate McGill from the chance of a play off.

Today Shaughnessy and Eddie Brown will start preparations for the American game and the squad will be put through a severe and intensive course of training in preparation for the Syracuse team. Owing to the fact that the game will be played under American rules McGill will be at a disadvantage and if they hold Syracuse to a low score it will redound greatly to their credit.

After the game on Saturday the team were the guests of Toronto Varsity at Hart House where a feeling of good will prevailed and the gathering had the appearance of a fraternal re-union. The feeling of good fellowship between Toronto and McGill is more apparent this year than ever before and as long as these two colleges are represented in sport by men of this years type there is no danger that it will degenerate into hostility.

The Varsity management are to be congratulated on the way the enormous crowd was handled and the McGill con-

R.M.C. TEAM VICTORIOUS ON SATURDAY

Military Men Down Red and White Seconds.

GAME FIGHT.

Winners Show Superiority in All Departments.

The McGill seconds went down to defeat before the strong R.M.C. team by the score of 26-5 on Saturday afternoon. The Red and White men fought gamely from start to finish, but R.M.C. displayed marked superiority in all departments of the game. Hughes, who did the punting for R.M.C., got good distance on his kicks, and although he outdistanced the McGill backs in the first part of the game, Wilson, who did the greater part of the kicking for McGill, was not forced to yield much ground to him. Zimmerman played a wonderful game for R.M.C. Time and again he broke away, and ran through the McGill team for 30 or 40 yard gains before being downed. The McGill team seemed to be weak in tackling ability. Often an R.M.C. man would get the ball, and owing to poor tackling, would tear through the McGill line for yards. Zimmerman, especially, seemed hard to hold, and twisted through the McGill tacklers with amazing facility.

R. M. C. tore right in in the first quarter, and piled up a substantial lead of fifteen points. Their first touchdown was more or less a fluke, as Hughes tried a drop kick, which hit the upright McGill fumbled the ball, and an R. M. C. man fell on it. The other touchdowns came as a result of long runs by R.M.C. In the third quarter McGill worked hard and got the ball on a fumble near the R.M.C. line. Wilson tried a drop kick, which hit the bar and in the resulting scrimmage a McGill man got the ball and registered McGill's single touch. The R.M.C. line was too strong and fast for McGill, and often stopped the Red and White plays before they had really got going.

In the first quarter, after an exchange of kicks, Zimmerman got the ball and ran thirty yards before being brought down by Amaron. R. M. C. tore through for yards, then Hughes tried a punt, which hit the upright. The McGill backs fumbled and R.M.C. fell on the ball for the first touch. Hughes failed to convert. After the resumption of play Zimmerman again nailed the ball and broke through an open field for another long run. R.M.C. gained yards and went over for their second touch. Carr-Ross made yards on a neat end run, then Hughes kicked to Amaron. R.M.C. got the ball near the McGill line, but McGill recovered the ball on a fumble. Brown, Wilson, D. B. Foss, Amaron caught the punt and ran it back 30 yards. In the next few minutes McPherson went over the McGill line for the last touch of the period, which ended R.M.C., 15; McGill, 0.

R.M.C. started off with a rush in the second period, but were penalized and McGill was given the ball. The McGill line failed to tear through for yards, and lost on an exchange of kicks. Burley crossed the Red and White line for another touch. During the rest of the period the R.M.C. back division handled the McGill kicks with ease. Zimmerman, on one occasion running the ball back twenty yards, and the R.M.C. line was impregnable. Half time score was: R.M.C., 20; McGill, 0.

McPherson brought the crowd to its feet by a long run at the beginning of the third quarter, and Panet made good his run by tearing over the McGill line for R.M.C.'s fifth touch. In an exchange of kicks R.M.C. gained nothing, and fumbled Wilson's return. They recovered, but dropped the ball again in the midst of a play, and a McGill man fell on it. Wilson tried a drop, which hit the cross bar and bounced beneath it. McGill nailed the loose ball and scored their single touch. For the remainder of this period the play was confined to the McGill end of the field, and Hughes tried hard to rouge. McLean ran the ball out too fast for the R.M.C. wing men. This period ended R.M.C., 25, McGill 5.

McGill made yards in the last quarter, but R.M.C. secured the ball and made yards in an end run that uncovered some neat combination. Zimmerman got the ball and ran it with in kicking distance of the intermediate line. McLean fumbled, but Hyman recovered the ball and ran it out. Hughes kicked to McLean, who was downed behind the line. Hughes tried a drop, but missed, and Hyman ran it out. McGill bucked up and tore through the R.M.C. line for yards. Zimmerman got the ball in an exchange of kicks, and ran it back 20 yards. Game ended with score: R.M.C., 26, McGill 5.

tingent were especially appreciative of the way they were looked after during the game. Every one is hoping for a play off and if the two teams come together again the battle is bound to go down in history as one of the closest struggles and most exciting contests ever played between Toronto and McGill.

Canada has a momentous decision to make.

In no previous election has there been a more vital, clean-cut issue affecting the future of every individual Canadian and indeed the future of the Country.

The people are asked to decide between Reasonable Protection and Free Trade, between continued Prosperity and economic Ruin.

Everyone should look the facts squarely in the face—free from partisan bias or class prejudice—for as YOU vote so must YOU accept the consequences of your vote.

On the one hand there is the unassailable truth that Canada has enjoyed PROSPERITY during the past half century, due entirely to its policy of upholding a reasonable protective tariff, and to the diligence and industry of its people.

In view of present world-wide conditions of Uncertainty, Unrest, and Unemployment—the inevitable aftermath of War—Protection is needed today more than ever before. In fact, Protection, coupled with unflinching courage by the People and a strong, stable Government is the only hope Canada has of emerging from the crisis with its strength and economic liberty unimpaired.

Under Free Trade the Canadian dollar would depreciate still more, Canadian industries would be driven to the United States, thousands of Canadian men and women would be deprived of their employment, and the Canadian farmer would lose his home market.

At this critical time Canada should vote for a leader who knows where he is going and why.

NOTED CONSULTING ENGINEER WAS A GRADUATE OF MCGILL

Late Sir John Kennedy Received LL.D. in 1917 — Three Graduates to Run as Liberal Candidates in Coming Election—C. E. Jenkins, '01, and Cyrus Macmillan, '00, Elected to the Executive Committee of G.W.V.A.—Very Large Number Pass Canadian Medical Exams.

Sir John Kennedy, consulting engineer of the Port of Montreal, who died a few days ago, was a past student of the University, which in 1917 conferred upon him the honorary degree of LL.D. Sir John was without doubt one of the most eminent of Canadian engineers. For years before becoming connected with the Montreal Harbor Commission as chief engineer, he was engaged in railroad and industrial engineering in different parts of Canada and while in charge of the engineering department of the Commission carried out many of the great improvements which have made Montreal one of the best equipped harbors on the continent. Since 1907 he has been consulting engineer to the Commission.

Sir John was born at Spencerville, Ontario, 1838 and commenced his professional career as early as 1853 under the late T. C. Keefer, LL.D. '05. He was one of the founders of the Canadian Society of Civil Engineers (The Engineering Institute of Canada) and connected with many other technical bodies. For some years past he had been blind and took an active interest in organizations looking to the welfare of those so afflicted. Lieut. John Keefer Kennedy, Law '98, who died of wounds in 1916, was a son, and one of his daughters is Lady Ames, wife of Sir Herbert Ames.

Harold Fraser, Sci. '99, died suddenly at his home in Brockville, Ont., on October 27 in his 46th year. The late Mr. Fraser was inspector of gas and electricity for the district of Belleville and previously was manager of the municipal gas and electric light department of Brockville. He served during the South African war with the Royal Canadian Regiment and was known in early manhood as an all-around athlete, being equally proficient as an oarsman, footballer and cyclist and being a champion in all three departments. Mr. Fraser was a son of the late Hon. C. F. Fraser, Commissioner of Public works for Ontario, and is survived by his mother and one sister.

Rev. C. E. Jenkins, Arts '01, of Brantford Ont., and Prof. Cyrus Macmillan, Arts '00, of the University, have been elected to the executive committee of the Dominion command, Great War Veterans' association, the former as the representative of Ontario and the latter as the representative of Prince Edward Island.

The engagement is announced of Germaine, daughter of J. P. Beauvais, Montreal, and Dr. M. W. LeBel, Med. '19, of Ottawa. The marriage will take place about the middle of November.

At the Montreal Maternity hospital on October 20 a son was born to Captain William T. May, Sci. '12, and Mrs. May.

Dr. Herbert M. Marler Law '98, has been unanimously selected as the Liberal candidate in the St. Lawrence-St. George division of Montreal.

On October 15 at the Cathedral of St. John the Divine, New York City, Rev. Dr. Nash united in marriage Dr. William J. Stevens, Med. '16 of the staff of the Women's hospital, New York, and Miss Mary Howe.

The marriage has taken place of Captain Francis Carleton Hanington, M.C., past student with Sci. '17, of the Royal Canadian Artillery, and Yvonne, daughter of Leon Brison, Lymel, Belgium.

On November 2 the marriage will take place of Humbert C. G. Mariotti, Arts

'10, Law '13, of Montreal, and Mary Elizabeth, youngest daughter of Charles Smedley, Toronto.

To James B. Clearihue, M. A. D. C. L., Arts '11, member in the Legislature for Victoria, fell the honor recently of moving the address at the opening of the British Columbia House of Assembly. Mr. Clearihue proceeded to Oxford from McGill as the first Rhodes Scholar from British Columbia. At Jesus College he received the degrees of M. A. and D. C. L., and in 1914 returned to Canada only to enlist for overseas service with the 51st Battalion. While overseas he won the Military Cross and in 1919 took up the practice of his profession in Victoria.

Dr. G. B. Peat, Med. '06, has been elected president of the St. John, N.B., District Council of the Boy Scouts' Association.

Robert A. Chambers, Sci. '04 of New Glasgow, N.S., has been appointed superintendent of mainland ore mines and quarries of the British Empire Steel Corporation and will also be chief mining engineer for the entire mining and quarrying operations of the Corporation.

L. S. Rene Morin, Law '05, is the Liberal candidate in the country of St. Hyacinthe—Rouville, Quebec.

The following graduates in Medicine were successful in passing the October examinations under the Canada Medical Act:—A. B. Hawthorne, Arts '17, Med. '21, Montreal; W. W. Eakin, Med. Hon. Walter G. Mitchell, Law '01, provincial treasurer of Quebec in the Taschereau administration, has been selected as Liberal candidate in the Federal St. Antoine division of Montreal.

Dr. D. H. McAllister, Med. '98, is the Liberal candidate in the Federal constituency of Royal (King's and Queen's counties), New Brunswick. He lives at Sussex, N.B., and is a former Liberal member.

It is hoped, however, that they will materially improve as the season progresses. Summing up the situation at Syracuse this fall, it resolves itself into a problem of whether or not the line and ends come through and show the form displayed usually by the Syracuse forwards. If they do the Orange are started for a big season and should be among the leaders at the end of this gridiron year despite their defeat at Pittsburg.

The McGill game at the Percival Molson Memorial Stadium on November 5th is being treated very seriously by the Syracuse team who fear Frank Shaughnessy's splendid football team who will endeavor to adopt themselves to the American game in that contest.

cause their alarm. Abbott was the only regular back lost from last year's eleven and his kicking was his most valuable contribution to the 1920 team. Kellogg and Zimmerman are the fastest pair of running backs seen at Syracuse in a long time and they have been very consistent in their work all season. Zimmerman in addition to his splendid work at carrying the ball has been kicking well. Anderson, who is bound to receive favorable consideration with Kellogg as All-American backfield material this year, has been playing a wonderful game. He has never failed to gain on his line backs and as a defensive he is easily the star of the team. His understudy, "Fritz" Foster, has been playing well and is proving a valuable man for "Chick" Meehan. Foster is a splendid kicker and a fair passer in addition to his ability as a line plunger. "Babe" Frugone is the other back and had been going good all season—in fact so good that he has shared the assignments in every game so far.

The quarterback position is an open race between "Benny" Moses and Harry Herbert. Herbert excels in speed and ability to carry the ball, while Moses can pass and kick better than his rival. He is the most clever passer on the entire squad. Both, however, have failed to show satisfactory generalship at all times and in some of the games they work along this line has been very poor.

NOTICES

WOOL PRICES UP AGAIN.
But Semi-ready Prices Fixed by Price in Pocket.

"There can be no corresponding advance in Semi-ready suits this season, despite the increase of 15 per cent. in the cost of wool yarns," said the President.

"Semi-ready prices are fixed at the beginning of each season. The price in the pocket, and the plain price on the custom tailoring samples cannot be altered."

"The Special Order Tailoring Department has behind it the choice of 350 patterns, and a million dollar stock of fine woollens. There is not a cheap or cottony yard in the selection offered."

"You can always wager that Semi-ready suits will win lasting favour," said the Manager of the R. J. Tooke Stores.—Advt.

WESLEYAN ELEVEN WIN SOCCER GAME

Theologs. Arise Betimes to Stage Game on the Campus.

Early Saturday morning the old campus was the scene of a fast, exciting game of soccer football between the Wesleyan and the Congregational Theological Colleges. The Wesleyans proved too strong for the Congos, and the score ended 2-0.

Both teams made up in energy what they lacked in skill. The Wesleyan forwards displayed superiority in shooting ability. The Congo forwards were weak in shooting, and though they had several good opportunities to score, threw them away by wild shooting. The Wesleyan backs played a strong game, and cleared the ball well. Davis played well for the Wesleyans, and the whole team worked well together.

For the Congos, Smith, Moore and Bronson formed a good defence. Play started with a rush, and the Congos carried the ball to the Wesleyans' end, but were unable to score. The Wesleyans came back strong, and after a lively scrimmage in front of the Congo goal, shot the ball through for the first score. In the second half the Congos worked hard to even up the score, but the Wesleyans skillfully shot through another goal, and the score ended Wesleyans, 2; Congos, 0.

HARRIER'S PLACE IN DUNLOP RACE

Toronto Gladstones Win Trophy in Fast Race.

The Harrier club gave an excellent exhibition of ability in the Dunlop Road Race on Saturday. Although they did not win the event they put up a splendid fight against the best runners in Canada.

Le Mollere and National A. A. A. were unable to compete owing to the lack of men. The other teams however were there in force, Gladstone A. C., of Toronto, C. P. R. A. A. A., North Branch Y. M. C. A. (two teams) and McGill with two teams.

The race started at a fast pace. At the finish Gladstones of Toronto welcomed the first two runners while the C. P. R. A. A. A. came in with a third place.

The final score of the race was as follows:

Gladstone A. A. 12.

C. P. R. A. A. A. 39.

McGill 1st 44.

North Branch Y. M. C. A. 57.

McGill 2nd 94.

For McGill the running of Legg was best. He crossed the line sixth and put up a fast race all around the course.

Wiggins, Egerton and Owens came in as the first four on the McGill team.

The team finished in the following order:—

1.—R. Legg.

2.—R. H. Wiggins.

3.—N. Egerton.

4.—N. Owens.

5.—G. R. Stenhens.

6.—R. S. Wade.

7.—E. B. Copland.

8.—R. C. Antliff.

9.—P. M. Gross.

10.—G. Dempsey.

11.—E. C. Creelman.

Of these, the first six namely Legg, Wiggins, Egerton, Owens, Stephens, and Wade will probably make up the team that will go to Kingston, for the meet on Friday.

The time of the race on Saturday was very fast. For the five miles the first man did 26 min. 15 and 1-5 seconds. The man was 1-5 of a second behind while the third man followed in 14 seconds.

SPECIAL NOTICE

We can offer very good profits to a few McGill students who can use their spare time very advantageously between now and Christmas by introducing our Gold Seal private greeting cards to fellow students.

Gold Seal cards are very high class, exceedingly popular and sell practically on sight. We are making a specialty by putting the McGill Crest on same, so this is an attractive proposition.

Call and see these samples and get our book.

PRINCESS THEATRE.

This week the Princess will offer a most attractive programme of high-class vaudeville features, which should prove a strong drawing-card. Dooley Tolcan, "The Petite Entertainer" will offer a wire walking novelty, in which she accomplishes some difficult feats with an ease that is astounding. Sam Green and Mildred Myra, two musical comedy favorites, will be seen in a singing, dancing and musical offering which they call, "Merry Moments".

Bostock's Riding School proposes to introduce how circus riders are trained for their work. It is a spectacular act and provides many laughs while at the same time it is unfailingly interesting. "Tuneful Tales" is the title of song act in which Irving Newhoff and Dode Phelps will star. They have been provided with a special programme of new songs by Williams B. Friedlander, one of America's foremost song writers.

Roland Travers, a smart young illusionist, bewilders not only by the character of his tricks and their range, but also by the celerity with which he performs them, "as easy as falling off a log". Johnny Burke, formerly of Johnny and May Burke, will be seen in his very funny burlesque idea, entitled, "Drafted". Mr. Burke has until recently been one of the outstanding features of "The Passing Show" and also has helped many Broadway Musical Comedy successes to score.

A pleasing turn will be furnished by Ethel Forde and Lester Sheehan, who with the assistance of Marion Forde, will present "Footsteps and Fantasies" an entertaining series of dances in which they display much cleverness. Val and Ernie Stanton, describe themselves as "The English Boys from America", they will offer a smart talking act with a touch of music and a bit of dance. Althea Lucas & Co. present a sensational athletic exhibition. They perform their feats artistically and dexterously, their offering being not amiss to call, "An Artistic Triumphs".
